

Terms & Conditions

Female Executives of Texas (FETX) board members play a crucial role in shaping our mission and impact. To ensure consistency, engagement, and success, all board members must agree to the following terms:

Term & Commitment

- Board members serve a one-year term with the option to renew.
- All positions are voluntary; stipends are provided for events, member mentorship, and content creation roles.
- Joining the board is free, but members must commit to fundraising or donating $200 within the first six months.

Expectations & Requirements

- Confidentiality Agreement: All members must sign an agreement upon acceptance.
- Apparel: FETX T-Shirts is provided free of charge, FETX Blazers are for purchase and must be worn at all events and appearances.
- Event Attendance: Members must attend all events hosted in their city.
- Meetings: Quarterly in-person meetings are required.
- Training: All new board members must complete training during their first month.
- Communication: Board communication will be through group text with their city's team.

Trial Period

- All board members will undergo a three-month trial period to ensure alignment with FETX's mission and expectations.
